

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Dear Investor,
ABERDEEN STANDARD SICAV I

What is happening?

We are hereby providing notice of the complete withdrawal of the Aberdeen Standard SICAV I investment vehicle, including each of the funds set out in the attached Appendix, from the Czech Republic and Hungary in accordance with Directive (EU) 2019/1160 with regard to cross-border distribution of collective investment, and from South Africa. Following the submission of the de-notification request to the home state regulator, abrdn will cease all active marketing and promotional activity in these countries.

Shareholders may redeem their holdings within 30 days of receiving this letter, free of redemption charges. Note that existing investors can remain invested in the funds and do not need to redeem their shares, however, existing investors will not be able to make any further investments. Once withdrawal from the host marketing country is complete, abrdn will ensure that updated fund documentation is available at www.abrdn.com.

A notice stipulating our intention to terminate the existing marketing and distribution arrangements will also be available at www.abrdn.com and will be sent to you under separate cover.
